William Academy is a well-known private boarding school in Toronto, Canada. It offers a range of classes from Grade 9 to 12, including university preparatory courses, art programs, sports programs, AP courses, language learning program, summer camp, as well as exchange program.

William Academy has two campuses: one is located on Victoria Park Avenue in Toronto, easily accessible by public transit, the other one lies in Cobourg, less than an hour drive from Toronto. Our historic Cobourg school building was built in 1901, with the first 6 students graduating in 1904 (see picture).

With a unique multicultural learning atmosphere, William Academy has a strong appeal both locally and internationally, providing a platform for locals and international students to communicate, exchange ideas and learn from each other.

William Academy, preparing the future global leaders!
